FAQ: Why is there a processing fee? In order for any promotional program to have integrity and enjoy longevity it is necessary to make sure we are only processing travel accommodation requests for customers who intend to use them. This certificate is valid for a reservation form offering you and a guest three days and two nights of accommodations in your choice of cities above.

As consumers we all appreciate the impact wasteful spending has on our economy. You make our promotional programs successful in showing your commitment to use the program by paying the processing fee. The fee goes solely to help cover the ancillary operating costs of processing your accommodation request and sending you any necessary information to help you enjoy your stay. PPM Promos gives a portion of its proceeds back to our local communities to help needy families and their children, feed the hungry and help those less fortunate with clothing, medication and other humanitarian items many of us more fortunate take for granted. We also offer scholarships that help people start new small businesses and create jobs. Your participation contributes to a great cause that is helping both create and save valuable jobs here at home in the U.S.

Reservations must be made within one (1) year of redeeming this certificate. They must also be booked at least 60 days in advance of your stay. You must be 21 years of age or older please. Weekend dates are not available with this program. Dates near holidays and during conventions are usually not available on this special offer. Transportation, meals, taxes and gratuities are not included. Upon checkout at the end of your hotel stay; you are responsible for the cost to cover all of your room taxes of $29.95 per night.

You will receive your Travel Reservation form within 10 days of redeeming this certificate. Have a great vacation!
